In addition, be sure that JavaScript is enabled in your browser.

As with all programs be sure to read each step carefully before proceeding with installation.

When configuring a browser other than your default you may be asked if you want to make this your permanent browser. If you select no, you can still proceed and your original browser will remain. If you select yes, the one you select may become your new browser. If you accidentally select yes, the next time you open your browser it should ask the same question and you can answer accordingly.

After reading and setting things up according to the above instructions, if you still have questions contact DXCC at dxccadmin@arrl.org
