

1. To begin you must first sign into the ARRL web site

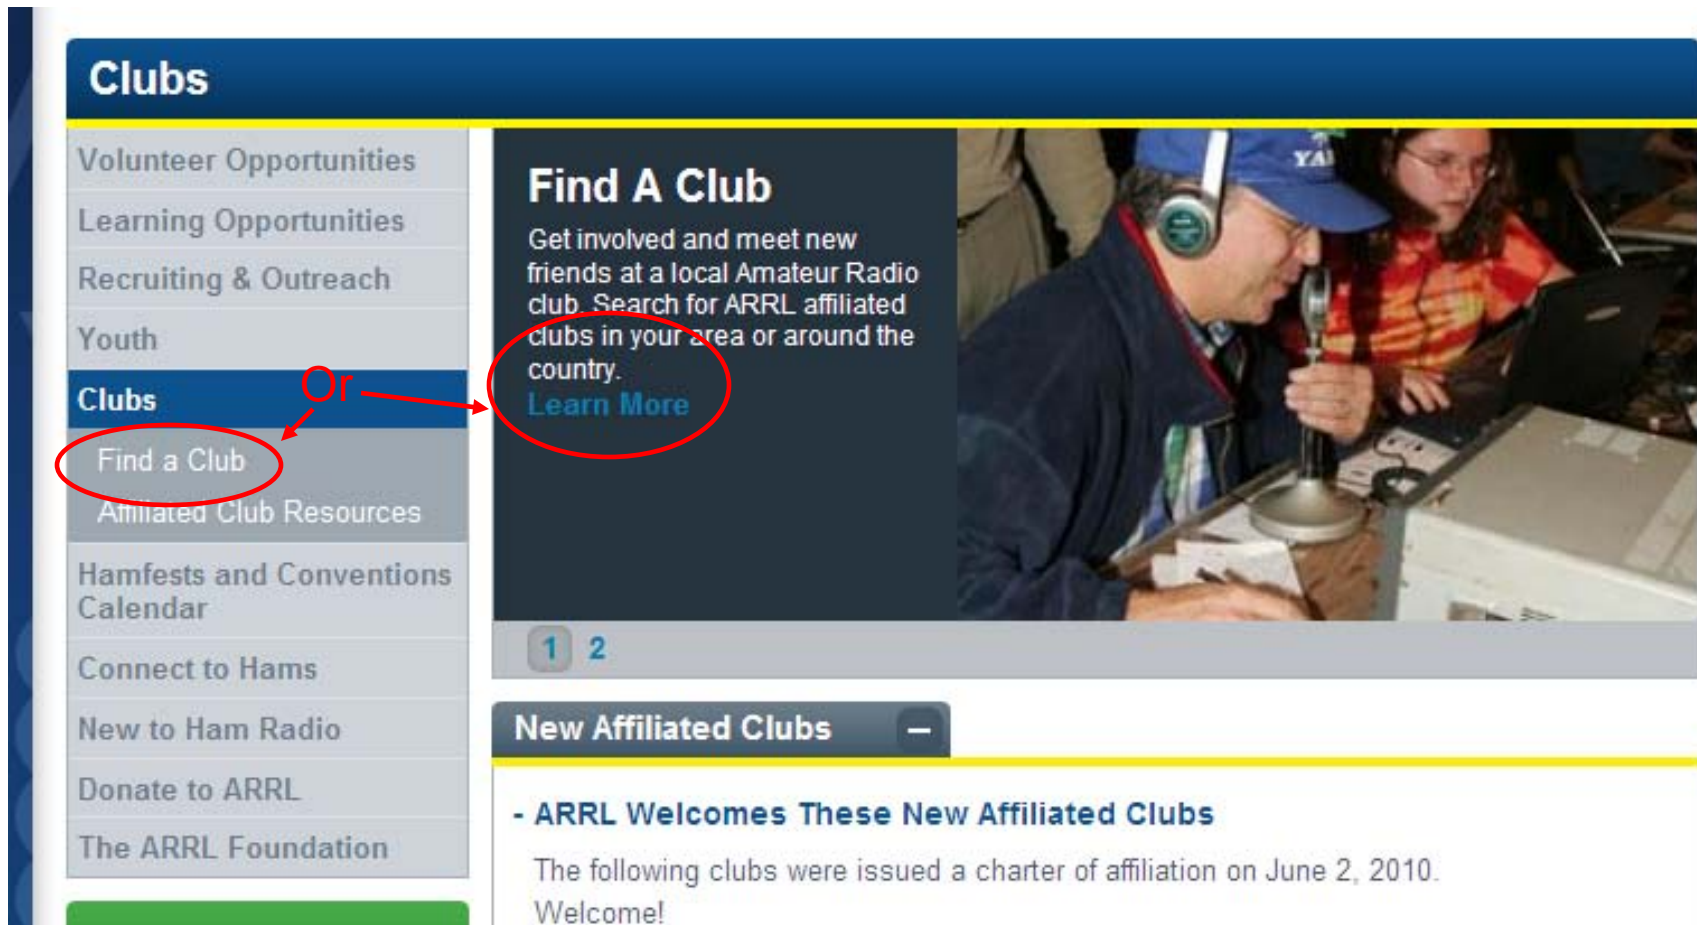

The image shows the top section of the ARRL website. On the left is the ARRL logo, a yellow diamond with 'A', 'R', 'R', 'L' and a radio symbol. Next to it is the text 'ARRL The national association for AMATEUR RADIO™'. In the center, a 'Site Login' section is circled in red, containing a 'Username' input field, a password input field with dots, and 'Login', 'Forgot Password?', and 'Register' links. To the right is a 'Website Search' section with a 'Keyword' input field, a 'Category' dropdown, and a 'GO' button. Below that is a 'Call Sign / Name Search' section with a 'Search Licensees' input field, a 'GO' button, and a shopping cart icon showing '0 items'. At the bottom is a dark blue navigation menu with buttons for 'Home', 'On The Air', 'Licensing, Education & Training', 'Membership', 'Regulatory & Advocacy', 'Public Service', 'Technology', 'Get Involved', 'Publications & Store', 'About ARRL', and 'News & Features'.

2. Next, select the GET INVOLVED tab from the header menu then choose CLUBS from the site callout or from the sidebar menu.

The screenshot shows the ARRL website's navigation and content. The header menu includes: Home, On The Air, Licensing, Education & Training, Membership, Regulatory & Advocacy, Public Service, Technology, Get Involved, Publications & Store, and About. The 'Get Involved' section is active, displaying a sidebar menu with options: On The Air, Licensing, Education & Training, Membership, Regulatory & Advocacy, Public Service, Technology, Get Involved, Volunteer Opportunities, Learning Opportunities, Recruiting & Outreach, Youth, Clubs, Hamfests and Conventions, Calendar, Connect to Hams, New to Ham Radio, Donate to ARRL, The ARRL Foundation, Publications & Online Store, About ARRL, and News & Features. The main content area features a large ARRL logo and a text block stating: 'ARRL is the largest organization in the world representing radio amateurs. You can help to expand the voice and visibility of the Amateur Radio Service by volunteering and supporting ARRL.' Below this are several sections: 'New to Ham Radio?' (Learn More), 'Volunteer' (Learn More), 'Donate' (Learn More), 'The ARRL Foundation' (Learn More), 'Connect to Hams' (Learn More), and 'Clubs' (Learn More). The 'Clubs' section is circled in red, and a red arrow points from the 'Get Involved' tab to it. Another red circle highlights the 'Clubs' link in the sidebar, with a red arrow pointing from the 'Get Involved' tab to it.

3. Select FIND A CLUB to search for your club.

The screenshot displays the ARRL website's 'Clubs' section. On the left is a vertical navigation menu with the following items: Volunteer Opportunities, Learning Opportunities, Recruiting & Outreach, Youth, Clubs, Find a Club, Affiliated Club Resources, Hamfests and Conventions Calendar, Connect to Hams, New to Ham Radio, Donate to ARRL, and The ARRL Foundation. The 'Clubs' menu item is highlighted in blue, and a red circle is drawn around 'Find a Club'. A red arrow points from the word 'or' to the 'Find a Club' link. The main content area features a 'Find A Club' heading, a paragraph of text, and a 'Learn More' link, all enclosed in a red circle. The text reads: 'Get involved and meet new friends at a local Amateur Radio club. Search for ARRL affiliated clubs in your area or around the country. Learn More'. Below this is a photograph of two people at a radio station. At the bottom, there is a 'New Affiliated Clubs' section with a minus sign icon, followed by a heading '- ARRL Welcomes These New Affiliated Clubs' and a paragraph: 'The following clubs were issued a charter of affiliation on June 2, 2010. Welcome!'.
