Memorandum of Understanding

The Salvation Army National Corporation

and

The American Radio Relay League, Incorporated

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is to document the relationship between The American Radio Relay League, Incorporated (ARRL) and The Salvation Army National Corporation on behalf of itself and the four Salvation Army territorial corporations, The Salvation Army, a Georgia corporation, The Salvation Army, a New York corporation, The Salvation Army, a California corporation, and The Salvation Army, an Illinois corporation (together, “The Salvation Army.”). This MOU provides a framework for cooperation between the The Salvation Army and ARRL in exercising the provision emotional support and other disaster services during disasters and future training exercises. The Salvation Army and ARRL are each a “Party” under this MOU.

I. Organization Descriptions

A. The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is an international, religious and charitable movement, and is organized and operated on a quasi-military pattern, and is a branch of the Christian church. All programs of The Salvation Army are administered by Salvation Army officers, who are ministers of the Gospel. The motivation of The Salvation Army is love of God and a practical concern for the needs of humanity. The Salvation Army’s provision of food, shelter, health services, counseling, and other physical, social, emotional, psychological and spiritual aid, is given on the basis of need, available resources and established program policies.

For administrative purposes, The Salvation Army is divided into four territories (Central Territory, Eastern Territory, Southern Territory and Western Territory), each one being a separate non-profit entity with its own headquarters and corporate structure. Reporting to each territorial headquarters are from nine (9) to eleven (11) divisional administrative centers, strategically located in the territories. Salvation Army personnel in these centers direct activities in from one (1) to four (4) states. Reporting to divisional centers are local corps community centers (churches) and social service institutions of other types and local volunteer committees operating in smaller communities.

For emergency communications, The Salvation Army sponsors the Salvation Army Team Emergency Radio Network (SATERN). SATERN operators are Salvation Army Emergency Disaster Services (EDS) volunteers who are licensed radio amateurs that specialize in providing emergency and auxiliary communications. Nationally, SATERN is managed by a National SATERN Liaison who works with the Territorial SATERN Coordinators from the four USA
Territories and the Canada-Bermuda Territory. SATERN is managed at the divisional level by a Divisional SATERN Coordinator or the Divisional Emergency Disaster Services Director. Local units may also have a Local SATERN Coordinator. SATERN conducts a daily (except Sunday) national/international voice Net, a weekly national / international digital Net. Each Territory has a weekly Net and several Divisions have divisional nets. All of the nets are conducted for the purpose of training and providing emergency, priority and health & welfare message services.

B. ARRL

ARRL is the national membership association for Amateur Radio operators. The ARRL is a Connecticut not-for-profit organization that engages in the promotion of interest in Amateur Radio communication and experimentation; the establishment of Amateur Radio networks to provide electronic communications in the event of disasters or other emergencies; the furtherance of the public welfare; the advancement of the radio art; the fostering and promotion of noncommercial intercommunication by electronic means throughout the world; the fostering of education in the field of electronic communication; the promotion and conduct of research and development to further the development of electronic communication; the dissemination of technical, educational and scientific information relating to electronic communication; and the printing and publishing of documents, books, magazines, newspapers and pamphlets necessary or incidental to any of the above purposes.

The Amateur Radio Emergency Service® (ARES®), a program of ARRL, consists of Amateur Radio licensees who have voluntarily registered their qualifications and equipment for communications duty in the public service when disaster strikes. Every licensed amateur, regardless of membership in ARRL or any other local or national organization is eligible to apply for membership in ARES. Training may be required or desired to participate fully in ARES. The local ARES Emergency Coordinator can provide specifics. Because ARES is an Amateur Radio program, only licensed radio amateurs are eligible for membership. The possession of emergency-powered equipment is desirable, but is not a requirement for membership.
