PROJECT SUBMISSION -- ASSIGNMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Note: If the Entrant is a minor under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they live, their parent or legal guardian must sign this Assignment of Intellectual Property as well.

Entrant Acknowledgment

I, the undersigned entrant ("Entrant"), submit my project entry ("Submission") to the American Radio Relay League ("ARRL") Student Coding Contest (the "Contest"). I understand the terms below govern my participation in the Contest.

Assignment by Entrant

I hereby assign to ARRL all right, title, and interest in and to the Submission, including all copyrights and all intellectual property rights. This includes the rights to reproduce, adapt, distribute, publicly perform, publicly display, and create derivative works. I understand that by entering the Contest, I am assigning the rights to the Submission.

Representations and Warranties

I represent that:

- I created the Submission and own all rights being assigned;
- The Submission does not infringe any third-party rights.

If the Entrant is a minor under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they live, their parent or guardian must sign as well.

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN CONSENT FOR MINOR

I, the undersigned parent or legal guardian ("Parent/Guardian") of the Entrant, hereby acknowledge, consent, and agree as follows:

Consent to Participation & Assignment

I, the undersigned Parent/Guardian, consent to the Entrant participating in the Contest and to the assignment of rights described above. I understand that ARRL may rely on this consent to exploit the Submission in all media worldwide, in perpetuity.

Representations and Warranties

Parent/Guardian represents that:

- The Entrant created the Submission and owns all rights being assigned;
- The Submission does not infringe any third-party rights;
- Parent/Guardian has legal authority to enter this agreement;

Cooperation Clause

Parent/Guardian and Entrant agree to execute any documents reasonably required to perfect the assignment.
